

a few days and your kid-
act fine.
It's made from the s and lemon juice, cornthyme, and two cups water help flush clogged kidneys to activity, neutralize the acids in the urine.

is inexpensive and can make a delightful after-in-water drink, which I take now and then to the kidneys clean and thereby often preventing any complications. Get ounces from your druggist with sprint of studiousness and Florence and her sister suddenly become models of domestic virtue, don't begin to think that they are too good for you. They will draw a red ring around May 23 and 29 on the calendar. Both will be big days.

TOP DROWNSWIMMING
"Mike" holds no terrors for Nep," one of the seals, like better than to sit down at a piano and tinkle out a solo. Nep is an accompanist to or a company of high school the show program.

The village records when the circus comes to town will be high and intelligent high. The smallest member human, Major Mite. He is 18 years old, but can't be seen because he is but eighteen inches

Because of the size of the will be no parade, but there plenty of free sights on grounds.

the circus comes to town
will be here, fresh from a spring sojourn in Madison Square Garden, and the annual family negro to the miniature "big top" city out Frelinghuysen avenue way will begin.

This year the circus will have new features galore and the tinsel and sparkle of the costumes of innumerable performers will sparkle with renewed glitter in a continuous panorama of arts in and above the five large rings.
An array of clowns also will have a number of surprises to spring and the elephants, trained seals and other animals will put over a number of "nifties."

✓Car Victim Is Identified By Kin After His Death

Relatives of Stanley Natchings, forty-five years old, of 150 John street, Harrison, who had been unidentified at City Hospital since he was struck by an automobile Sunday, arrived at the institution yesterday afternoon an hour after he died.

Natchings had been hit by a car driven by Charles Cox of 58 Thirteenth avenue at Springfield avenue and Bruce street. Cox was held on a technical charge of manslaughter.

J. F. Donahue Sought, Father Having Died

Newark police were asked last night to search for J. F. Donahue, who formerly lived at 28 South Tenth street. A telegram was received from the Pittsburgh police saying that Donahue's father had died in that city. The body will be given to a medical school unless claim is made by relatives, police said.

Detectives Dilley and Stackhouse learned that Donahue was not known at the South Tenth street address or in the neighborhood.

Promise Breach Suit Resumed at Fi

Special to the NEWARK

FREEHOLD—Trial of the breach of promise suit broug Helen VanBrunt, twenty-six of 171 Bridge avenue, Red Ba Joseph M. Pingatore of Jeff Long Branch, was resumed morning after a recess of a plaintiff had fainted at the witness stand Monday.

Witnesses will be called to rebuttal Miss VanBrunt, who that, after keeping company gatore seven years, providing money, giving up all her for him and turning down proposals of marriage, he wouldn't marry you on a expect to marry a better girl if I marry at all, and months."

Among other things, Mu testified, she left the Bay for Pingatore and became a

Fined as Reckless D

LEBANON—While drivin
here and White house, Joe Whitehouse Station was o State Trooper Marshall of who charged him with reck Justice of the Peace Thor this borough fined Dilley $